2011-2012 MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

About: The Advertising Club of Connecticut is the largest professional marketing and advertising association in the state serving the needs of growing businesses. Professionals in advertising, marketing and related fields are allowed to enjoy monthly networking events and educational seminars through the Ad Club membership. Our 2,000+ audience includes ad agency executives, media reps, public relations professionals, printers, photographers, graphic designers, creative directors, art directors, copywriters, web gurus and anyone who has a passion for marketing and advertising.

History: For the last 97 years, we have hosted educational events throughout the state, providing seminars where hot topics are debated and discussed; offer opportunities to meet with colleagues and potential clients; match needs and skills through internships; award scholarships and recognize the very best advertising in the state. We also produce charity events that benefit the Connecticut Children's Medical Center and allow us to award the annual Rob Branham Scholarship.

The Mission Statement: To promote the highest standards of excellence in advertising and marketing throughout the state, emphasizing professionalism, educational programs and seminars, networking, social networking, scholastic mentoring and scholarship, philanthropic giving, exchanging of ideas and the recognition of creative excellence.
